

TELLING THE NEWS WITH PICTURES

MRS. CLARA PHILLIPS, charged with beating Mrs. Alberta Meadows to death with a hammer in Los Angeles' "stone age" murder, arrested at the instigation of her husband, A. L. Phillips, an oil man, is shown in loving embrace with him, after he finally decided to aid her, and not the prosecution. (Int'l News Reel.)

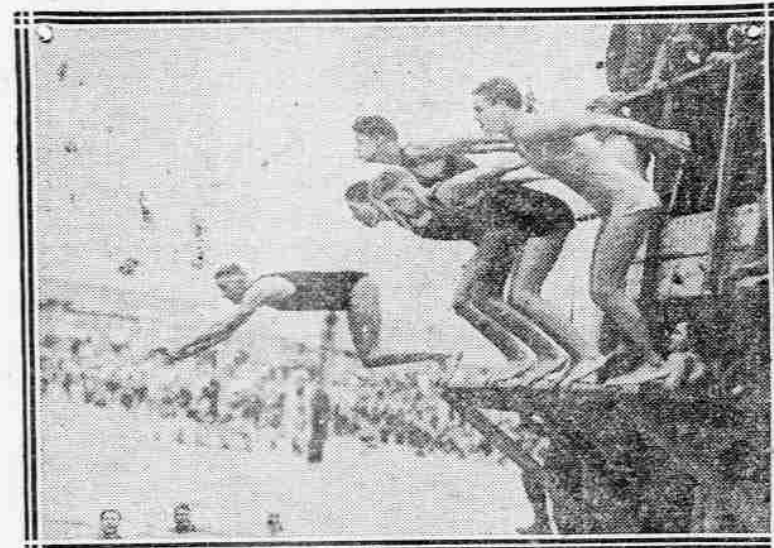

MINES GUARDED IN PENNSYLVANIA.—Hundreds of mounted National Guardsmen are encamped to aid Government plan for re-opening coal pits. This encampment is at Cokeburg.

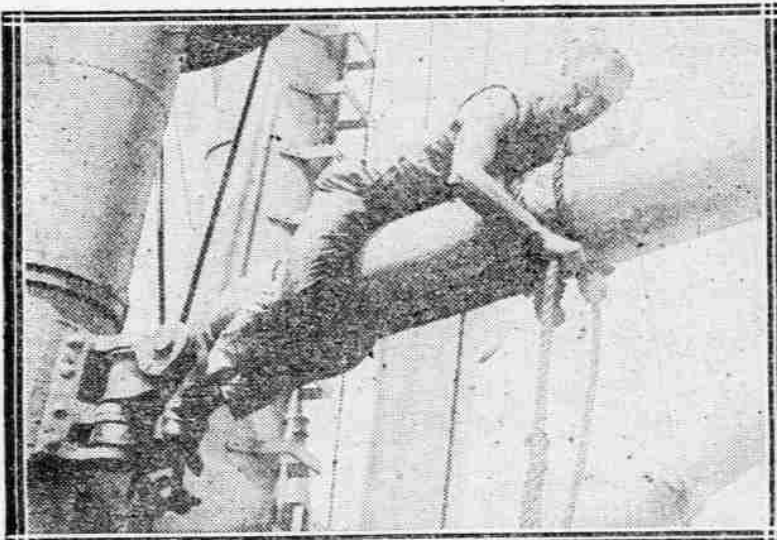

FOLLIES GIRLS AND "FLIVVERS" aren't usually coupled in the public's mind, but Miss Phebe Lee, of the Ziegfeld galaxy, has identified a Ford sedan she says was stolen from the Amsterdam Theatre, New York, forty-five minutes after she bought it. (N. Y. A.)

THREE GENERATIONS OF CLOWNS.—Here are the three George Hatzells, grandfather, father and grandson, all three with Ringling Brothers Circus. (Int'l News Reel.)

OFF FOR A NEW RECORD.—Take-off of 400-yard swim at Brighton Beach, N. Y., won by Johnny Weismuller, of Chicago, setting new time of 5 minutes, 16 1-10 seconds. Left to right: Black, California; Jarvis, Texas; Weismuller; Hall, Brooklyn; Karaczewski, Army. (Int'l News Reel.)

WILLIAM MAHLER, noted admiralty lawyer, shipped before the mast as a common seaman on the S. S. Haiti, to get first hand information on the life of a seaman. (C). (K. V.)

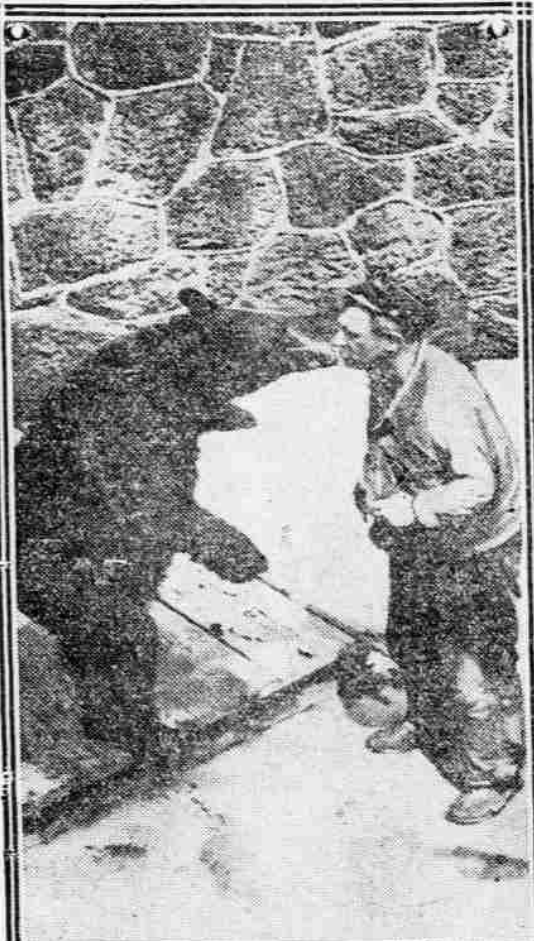

MRS. BOUCK WHITE, her marriage to her radical minister husband annulled, has sailed for her native France, probably never to return. (N. Y. A.)

A. C. ERNST, in charge of American food distribution in Saratov region of Russia, says hardships there, that included cannibalism, are alleviated. (N. Y. A.)

GUARANTEED TO BE COLD, because this lunch (right) to 700 bankers in Rainier National Park, Tacoma, Wash., was served right off a counter of solid snow. The bankers were on their way to their national convention at Portland, Ore.

THIS BEAR IN A PHILADELPHIA ZOO has an appealing way of coaxing food from his keeper—just as if the bear was willing to kiss him in advance gratitude. (Int'l News Reel.)

NITI NALDI, film actress, wearing a gown of metal cloth silver slip with gold net trimmed with chincella flowers and wide banding at bottom.

BENJAMINO GIGLI, famous tenor of the Metropolitan Opera Company, is in Naples, recovering from rheumatism. (N. Y. A.)

LUISA TETRAZZINI, noted prima donna, spending vacation abroad, is shown on the Island of Capri, near Naples, where she has an estate.

MRS. ISADORE SCHERER, wife of a New York lawyer, rushed home from Europe when she read in a paper that her husband had been injured. She went from Southampton, Eng., to Cherbourg, France, by airplane to catch a liner. (N. Y. A.)

Copyright, 1922, International News Service.